

ONE CENT -- LAST EDITION -- ONE CENT

LE DUC FORGIVES WOUNDED WIFE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 1 Chicago, Thursday, September 28, 1916

398

YOUNG GIRLS SLAVE IN ARMOUR PLANT WHILE DAUGHTER "DEBUTS"

Charity Begins at Home and Doesn't Go Very Far With Hog King—State Factory Inspector Drags Armour
Bosses to Court—Fined for Working Children, Under Sixteen Years Overtime.

.....
• GETTING READY FOR MISS
• LOLITA ARMOUR'S DEBUT

• "Although the date of her formal presentation has not yet been decided upon, entertainments for Miss Lolita Armour, daughter of Mrs. J. Ogden Armour of 3724 Michigan av., already are being planned by her friends."—Society Note.
•

packer in the world, was branded as a child labor exploiter yesterday and revolting conditions in his stock yards factories were bared when State Factory Inspector Oscar Nelson haled Armour's sweatshop bosses into court. His drivers of young children were fined $180.

The most startling feature of conditions in the Armour & Co. chilled beef and sausage factories is that nearly every exploited child was a

J. Ogden Armour, the biggest hog